Why do we build these reports?

Damasco Innovations builds competitive analysis reports as part of our marketing consultation service package. We often make these reports public so that businesses in sectors we work in, have a chance to see how they rank up, if at all.

Why is my business missing from this report?

The answer is quite simple. At the time we ran this report, we couldn't find you on google. This report focuses on the top 10 dominate companies that appear online.

What do we do?

Damasco Innovations is a full service marketing team that specializes in ROI focused digital marketing and website development.
